Davis Porch Awarded Insuror of the Year Honor by the Insurors of Tennessee

Nashville, Tenn., October 24, 2010 – Davis S. Porch, III, principal agent of Porch-Stribling-Webb, Inc. in Waverly, Tennessee, was presented with the prestigious “Insuror of The Year” award at the 117th Annual Convention of the Insurors of Tennessee held at the Nashville Hilton Downtown. The award is the highest honor presented annually by the Insurors of Tennessee, a statewide association of independent insurance agents and brokers.

Mr. Porch began his service for the Insurors of Tennessee in 1984 as a member of the Board of Directors as the Young Agent Director. He then became an officer of the association as Board Secretary, a position he held for five years. Not to be daunted, he began serving in the chairs of Vice President in 1994, on his way to serving as President in 1998. Most recently, he served as the State National Director for the last six years. He has attended the National Legislative Conference and Convention, held in Washington, D.C., well over ten times serving on the Trusted Choice National Committee and currently on the national Government Affairs committee. During his tenure as State National Director, he helped raise over $100,000 for the National InsurPAC. In 2005, after Hurricane Katrina, he volunteered with the national association and Habitat for Humanity in New Orleans building homes.

A graduate of Middle Tennessee State University, he went to work for Waverly Insurance Agency in 1976. At the age of 23, he became the owner and manager of the agency. In 1993, Waverly Insurance Agency and Webb Insurance Agency merged to become Porch-Stribling-Webb. He is active in his community, serving on the Humphreys County Utility District and the Humphreys County United Way Board of Directors.

“Dave has been an integral part of this association for over 25 years,” says Insurors CEO Chuck Bidek, “The service and efforts he has provided us made it an easy decision to name him as our 2010 Insuror of the Year.”
